Women Leading Through Hard Times

Join the NC ACE Women's Network for the next conversation in this series:

Reimagining Culture: Leveraging Influence to Support Wellbeing for All

November 4, 2021 | 4 – 5 p.m.

Join us for an opportunity to hear from Dr. Malika Roman Isler, Assistant Vice President of Inclusive Practice, on embracing wellbeing as a critical leadership skill and working to create institutional frameworks that support wellbeing practices for all. Dr. Isler previously served as the inaugural Director of Wellbeing at Wake Forest University, leading the development, institutionalization and collective impact of Thrive, Wake's comprehensive approach to wellbeing. Dr. Isler has extensive experience creating behavior change interventions and developing strategic plans that guide culture change. She holds a PhD in Public Health (Health Behavior and Health Education) from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
